IMPORTANT FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

The Robel Cause Despaired of in the State.

An Important Rebel Visits General Foster from Dixie.

HIS MISSION AND ITS OBJECT.

The Existence of Secret Union Societies in North Carolina Acknowledged by Rebel Papers.

BOLDNESS OF THE REBEL GUERILLAS.

They Surprise and Capture Union Pickets Within Three Miles of Newbern.

Destruction of a Steam Blockade Runner

ern, N. C., 16th inst , arrived at this pert corning. She brings several cabin passengers, General Poster's army. There was nothing new at off with their captives. Fort Anderson, it will bered, was arsalled last March by a force of six under the rubel General Pettigrow, but shey on the appearance of General Foster and of a tew shots. The rebei force now in the vicinity to belong to no particular organ s an independent band, like that of Major Whit. ford's, who, with his five hundred men, lately occupied

Our Newbern Correspondence. Newseav, N. C., July 13, 1863.

The rebels having exhibited some symptoms of a desire ance in the direction of Flymouth—as you have re-been notified—Caplain Flusser, with the gunn-ats and, Vaifey City, Southfield and Commodore Perry, fed on Monday last up the Roanoke river to Wil-ou, and threw a number of shells into town, destroy-ifinest house in it, and into those places where confusion. A bridge was destroyed by Colone of the One Hundred and First Pennsylvania, in nand of the land forces. Colo

Dr. E. H. Snelling, for a long time medical director of the department, has been relieved, and awaits the arrival of the successor.

NEWBERN, N. C., July 18-5 P. M. There was some little excitement in certain circles here errival from Seconda of a personage well known to old residents. Mr. Edwin R. Stanly—not the ex-milliary Governor, but an old secessionist-came in this after General Foster, and a long consultation en sed. By those who know Stanly, and are aware or the fact that be ewns or has owned considerable procerty in Newbern, it is surnised that his visit has more or loss to do with the relection or recovery of the same. The fall of Vicksburg and the defect of Lee may not be without the most salutary influences upon the leading secossion property holders in North Carolina; and this movement of one fale written upon the walls. Stanly is not the only se-consionlet who may be ready to come back and save their property by taking a timely dose of the oath of Nawagan, N. C., July 15, 1865. the couthers confederacy may require it to submit to the distrigration of a part of the constellation of States. Then is no harmony existing between the Jef Davis government and that of Vence, the Governor of North Carolina. The Davis papers in the State are wretchedly ble in the conception as they are weak in the execution of an enlarged idea. On the contrary, the Vance papers, such an that edited by Holden, in Rueign, for instance, are parted only by the pap turnished them by a rotter and upt and a fast-einking removat of a faction of an the arrival from robold to of Ned R. Stanly, who see coed to be on a make in pice, this loss start log effect it at first produced. Nad to sale anything like that, "onless directed on their own terms," string of hemps on his retness to beginne at it to be set promises a recent personal interest. When Wishington promises a procuration of practice or certain terms, some of which have already been formalisadoved in the Herath's despatches from the seas of government, H is not improbable that thousands of property bolders will be cound in the State of North Carolina ready to avail insuselves of its provincies.

Late in with pape a refor in decembration terms to the late in the country of the late with the late of the late with the late of the late of

THE ADVANCE ON CHARLESTON.

Capture of Morris Island--Its Importance in a Strategical Point of View.

reated bim with great loss.

The news of Gillmore's successful attack upon the approaches to Charleston was received yesterday by General Foster. A bulletin from the government telegraphedice amounced the fact to our citizens, and the joy creoffice aunounced the fact to our citizens, and the joy created was general.

The British blockade running steamer Kate was run ashore and destroyed at Wimington a few days since by the gunbeats Iroquess and State of Georgia. After she was driven ashore the robols brought down a battery and were playing away at our men who were sent to destroy the Kate when the gunbeat Victoria. Captain McDisarnid, appeared, silenced the battery, and completed the destruction of the rebei ressel.

the battery, and completed the teachers.

Adjutant George D. Williams, of the Third New York cavairy, bad his left leg broken just above the ankie joint yesterday by his horse slipping on a plank crossing. Licettenant Neurse, Centurial of the regiment.

The wife of Major General Foster leaves Newbern this evening in the steamer Emille, Captain ashcroft, for the North. She has been in infirm health for some time past. She will be accompanied by Colonel Hoffman, Adjutant General, and Dr. Ferby.

The regular New York steamer Ellen S. Terry, Captain Chapin, will not return to New York on her usual time this leip. She has been detained for governmental purposes.

Disco.

Liquitenant Colonel Chambers, of the Twenty third Massachusetts, wounded in the fight at Quaker bridge on the 6th inst. will probably go North ontil his wound is healed, which will take a month yet. Colonel Eiwell, of the same regiment, arrived yesterday, as did also Captain Beiger, whose supergrance here is worth the presence of a regiment of voterans.

REBEL ACCOUNTS.

Retten mess of the Confederacy.

[From the Saleum State Journal, June 30.]

A SUCRET POLITICAL ASSOCIATION AMONGST US.
On the eve of the late election in Virginia the Stehmot Enamener awake the people of that State to what it b leved to be a fact—vir that there was amongst their accret, gath bound political organization. The disclose doublisse act to the decast of Flournoy and the triumph General Smith, not withstudding the triod attempted the withdrawal of Mr. Googin; but the matter attraction little or no attention outside of Virginia. Since that the amatter has traceptred which decas us to the convition that the Examiner was correct. A secret organiztion does exist, and its object is much more damaged. a matter has transpired which seeds us to the convic-tion that the Remainer was correct. A secret organisa-tion does exist, and its object is much more discussible than the Remainer supposed. Of that hereafter. Another evidence of this second societ political move is fur-nished by the letter of our floodabore correspondent. We sustion the patriotic people of the state to be on the alert. Not place and power merely are involved in this move-ment, it embraces the liberty and the property, and even he area of the honest patriots of the confederacy. The ecopyments may shortly be made which will startle the nost apathetic.

Rebel Dash into Hickman, My.

Gamo, July 17, 1663 Sixty rebel cavelry made a dash into Hukman on W ceday night and robbed all the stores. They stayed until after daylight yesterday, during which time a steamer landed, but was not mainted. Our forces now occupy the town.

The Massachusetts Colored Troop Beerow, July 18, 1881

Four beautiful flags, the gift of the women of Ohio, we reciment by Gurector Andrew, who made an eloquest address on the occasion. Colonel Hellowell appropriately explosions behalf of the regiment.

(churred) at the camp at Bendville to day, it is expressed fately, for alleged insubordination. The affair will be investigated by the commandant of the port.

Death of Major Massett.

Major Mass. 's arrived from Vicksburg last ve at and died at the officers' hospital, of dynomicry as mine

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Obstinate Fight Between the Cavalry Forces of Generals Gregg and Stuart.

HEAVY LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES

Lee's Army Supposed to be Between Martins burg and Winchester,

Mo.,

WARRINGTON, July 18, 1868. A letter from the headquarters of the Army of the Ponoon in the direction of Vestal's or Gregory's Gap, result-ing, it is believed, from small parties reconnectering those sing dispersed by our osvalry and light bat-

Several paymenters have arrived, and the officers and troops attached to General Meado's headquarters are reeiving pay up to the 1st of July. No definite information can be obtained of the move ments of General Tax on Thursday night. More have been forwarded by other

A non-commissioned officer who arrived in Washington to day says that on Thursday General Grogg crossed at Falling Waters and was not off at the pherdatown for six borrs from communication with our army.

General Gregg, however, finally relieved himself, as cording to the same authority, by a gallant charge upon the rebets, capturing a large number of prisoners, three stand of colors and four pieces of artillery.

The Fight Between Gregg's and Stuart's

Cavalry. Histogrammes, Asset or the Potomac, July 18, 1863. The facts in regard 6 the cavalry fight are simply these .- General Gregg was ordered to move from a point above Williamsport and make a sweeping raid upon the

Try, numbering spwards of ten thousand.

A severe ongagement ensued, lasting several hours, the particulars of which have not yet been received here. It is only known that our cavalry obsumately and herolosily held their ground, although meeting with heavy losses. The losses of both sides are said to be

The main body of Lee's army is supposed to be bet en A private, belonging to the new division of the Third brutelly violated her person. He has seen summarily or-derest to be living, and the exception is to take place to-day. The woman was Miss Carroll, twenty or twenty. two years of age, a granddaughter of the famous Charles Rain has fallen incused by Lord for the last twenty four he re, but this mounting the sen to shart g brightly promising speedily to restore the make so pussions on couraging, and it is to be hoped not think the report worth crediting.

Our Harri berg Telegramen

Nothing has been received at these headquarters from pushed forward to General Meade's army, and everything I conversed with Gov. Ourtin a lew minutes this after noon. He spoke in glowing terms of the militia troops, and remarked that he had never seen a body of men that and remarged that he had never seemed so day or med that seemed so fully determined to carry out and vindicate the glorious cause in which they are engaged the militia. Too much praise cannot be given them, and all that is re-quired to make them the most effective troops in the field s discipline, which is being taught them by their skilful Gov. Curtin expects to be in Philadelphia on Monday

Our Shippensburg Telegrams

The firing heard yesterday morning about ten o'clock a Hagerstown, is supposed to be an attack by Buford's ca-valry and two batteries, which passed through the Clear Spring country with the intention of crossing the river at

Mr. Geo. H. Hart's Despatch

HEAD CARTING, BUTORD'S CAVALEY, MARYLAND, July 16, 1863. The enemy's loss in killed and wounded in the bittle with Bufors's division and a portion of patrick's cavalry, near Falling Waters, on Jo can be estimated to round numbers at the The enemy's position was one of great trength, as it was all through their entire had our army advanced to attack them would have an certico. A flank move on their right resting near plan, and this was considered the vulnerable point.

much so as on the 13th to have reduced the line of his the charge of permitting the enemy's escape cannot b words-or such as are reported-"have done all the work since the buttle of Gestyaburg, and were always in

There is a generally prevailing opinion that so encoun ter will take place between the two armies until the re-bela reach their old ground on the line of the Rappahin nock, much to the evalent disappointment of the true, a, who entertained the hope that, with the advantages a much in our favor, the rebellion would receive its finish word of reproach can be justly uttered against the inte-rior efforts or the men, who, have all along obeyed with alacrity and existinted an eagerness for meeting the coy perfectly astemphing.

A sount who was retained within the enemy's line, our ing the time the main body wes creasing, states that the rebels were in a state of great trapidation and confermed

Gen. Cadwallader In Command at Phila-

Pertangena, July 19, 1969 Carry of Newsge Codwallader has assumed communed of The need from Charles on this evening to habit my figure of them to, Whitesto is appointed their street and an the

ANOTHER VICTORY REPORTED.

Capture of Little Rock, the Capital of Arkansas.

A Large Number of Prisoners Taken, &c.,

PRILADELPHIA, July 18, 1863. The Cincinnati Quette of the 18th, received here by mail, says that parties from Helena, Arkanaas, represent that General Blunt had captured Little Rock with a large IMPORTANT FROM FORTRESS MONROP.

General Fitzhugh Lee and Captala Winand Flynn Should Be-Valedictory of

Yesterday afternoon the robel General Fitzhugh Lee and Captain Winder were removed from the Moffelian Money tal to Fortress Monroe and placed in a casemate neer ground, and notice was sent to the rebet govern ment that if they executed Captains Be eyer and Flyon whom they now have in close confinement and under Captain Winder will be expected in retaliation.

HEADQUARTERS, I REALIZABLE OF VINCINIA.)
FORESTE ARREST ARREST CORRES.
FORESTE MOSSING, July 10, 1865.)

In parsuance of instructions from the War Department the undersigned, preparatory to assuming command of the Eastern Department, relinquishes command of the Department of Virginia to Major General J. 6, Frater, quarters Brigadier General George W. Gesty, United States Volunteers, will perform the duties of department JOHN A. DIX.

Arrival of General Foster and Staff. Fourtess Mouses, July 18, 1843.
Major General Foster and stad arrived at Fortress

Manyon, Team, July 38, 1869.
Proposal insight has explained the artiflery want tends of the command of Buffer. Hillow' men contered in every direction, and must of them succeeded in creating the Temperates river and joining Roddy. Newstran setranted towards Treatme.

No considerable bodies of armed men are now north of the kne, but small bands of guarillarure thick and trouble.

The editor of the Memphis Arpur, while out on business at Union Depot, was concerpted by the relief litehardson. He asked fire days to prepare him of with the proceed and at the bet accounts he wer to's of feel tiene fie

THE ADVANCE ON CHARLESTON

Capture of the Greater Portion of Morris Island.

Over 800 Rebels Killed, Wounded or Captured.

A DOZEN BATTERIES TAKEN.

COMPLETE SURPRISE OF THE ENEMY.

Terrific Bombardment from Folly Island.

A Brave and Successful Storming Force Under General Strong.

Two Strong Forts Still Held by the Rebels.

THEIR CAPTURE CERTAIN

A Union Storming Party Badly Cut Up.

Gallant Conduct of the Scventh Connecticut.

Our Casualties and Robel Prison-

Various Engagements and Operations.

THE PLAN OF ATTACK General Strong in Command on

Morris Island. CO-OPERATION BY THE NAVY

Expedition by Higginson's Megro Regiment.

FAILURE TO BURN A BRIDGE.

Three Killed and Several Wounded,

The United States transport Fulion, Cart. Eldredge, from Port Royal, S. C., 15th heat., arrived at this port year

Our Special Correspondence with the Land Forces. Monne Im. so. S. C., July 14, 1463.

PREAM PART. Wednesday, and I shall forward, to be sent by her, a full We have achieved a glorious victory, more in ortant than is indicated by the more number taken, the territory obtained powersion of or the cases ties on either side. This is but the beginning of the end but the principal difficulties of the whole contemplated were to be overcome at the or self to be the man for the times in this denuct ment, where a long season of farming, negro teaching, share demonstrations and no fighting would have comunfit for war and incanable of speeces, in almost every comes the troops have been either repulsed or led back just as they were confident of success. But they were made of good stoff, and only needed a general capable of arousing their latest qualities, exciting enthusiasm, in spiring confidence, and planning campaigns which should not be failures or so long perfecting that young mes had all these requisites. Many of the troops knew him competency for such operations as the department af-forded an apportunity of making. They began to improve from the time of his arrival. From metionspess and apath;

Then General Gillmore brought with him other gone rule who preferred fighting to building levers, and having military rather than obsermante aspirations, would choose being under a fighting major general rather than a major general in a military sentlement. Brigadier Goes rai strong, young, ardent, danning, just calculated to in Seymour, strict in disciplion, wise and cautions in council, withat experienced, and brave as well as wise and prodent. Sirguider General Terry, combining a variety of ag-cellent qualities, well deserving of the rank, judicious and his brights—all these either came into the department with Coneral Cilimore, or by his coming were relieved of the restrictions which had disabled them from scoom the restrictions which had disabled them from scoom-plishing anything before. These were all generals in whom the troops had confidence, and each man was placed to the right position. Begadier Sens-ral Vogice was placed where the services of a man who had been a professor at West Point and had a remarkably extensive knowledge of military science and history would be most available and ties Cilimore assumed general direction of the whole not to red tope style, but giving his personal all wherever it was important. Brig Gen, Sagles was left in command of the post at Seasfort, the best place for again, as they had estimated to be. From lying in camp and lighting flows they went to preparing for a fight with troop on Poly Island and two brigades at North Eduto.

The homestim of these places was intended as a folia, but the same was exidently not avail missed by it. At you beard we were strictly on the defensive. Extensive works had been buttle at the southwesterly extremity, notice by a privatery was feared. Two miles es the White House, Gen. Vogdes had surrounded his headquarters with a corons of hotterios, regiment ride pits and gustones. Three motes further off, a stretch of tarres told with a source on the ER & Jul of word Proces for a the 1996 M